

The BOLD MOVES brief

EPISODE 3

BLINK & YOU'LL MISS IT

The Tiny Career Moves That Build Massive Momentum

THE CORE TRUTH

Your next bold move won't come gift-wrapped. It will come disguised as a tiny moment that most people ignore.

Smart people, clock it early and act fast.

Noticing is a trainable superpower.

And it's what separates the quietly brilliant from the career shifters who actually get traction.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

Most progress doesn't come from big breaks.
It comes from small cues.

Pattern recognition is a career skill.
Train it, and you'll move faster and smarter.

Missed signals = missed opportunities.
Learn to clock them early.

Insight isn't about being the loudest voice.
It's about asking better questions and seeing the game before it's fully visible.

ACTION MOVES TO TRY

Replay your week with a curiosity filter:

What felt odd, exciting, annoying or slightly off? There's probably a clue there.

Ask this in your next meeting:

"What's not being talked about here that might be important?" You'll instantly shift into strategic mode.

Revisit an old conversation:

Something offhand, casual, or half-dismissed. Was it actually a breadcrumb you need to follow?

CONVERSATION STARTER WITH YOUR BOSS

"Hey, I've been thinking about where I can add more value. I've noticed a few themes popping up recently, would it be helpful if I pulled together some insight or ideas around it, for you?"

(Translation: I'm switched on, I'm watching the game, and I'm already playing it.)
